Dr. Xu reveals

Yi Fang

A 2,000-year-old Chinese discovery for sleep-deprived adults

You tried Western medicine – and still can't sleep.
Now – it's time you know about this ancient Chinese sleep wonder!

Fall asleep...stay asleep...wake up rested – never been easier! Guaranteed!

Dear Friend,

How's your sleep?

If it's no good or you want it better – then you and I should meet.
I put people to sleep – in a good way.

My name is Dr. Yan Ping Xu – pronounced "Shoo". In Traditional Chinese Medicine, I'm a Healer. In modern medicine, I'm a Doctor.

I prefer healer because that really is what I do. I show my patients how to get well by using their body's amazing Chi (pronounced "chee"). It's the Chinese word for energy.

Never heard of Chi before? Don't worry, it's not weird. You use it all the time – you just don't realize it. For example...

Ever meet a person for the very first time and feel like you've known him forever and you get along so great immediately?

That's Chi!

It's your energy connecting positively with theirs. On the other hand...
